Guidelines for Commenting:

We love your blog comments, and thank you SO much for submitting them, because you help make Rosie's blog a great blog. To keep it fun and interesting instead of getting boring and weird, please follow these Guidelines in using Rosie's blog:

1. Obviously, this blog is open to the public, so think about what you include in your comments. Don't include anything in a comment that you would like to keep private. For personal safety reasons, please DO NOT include any personal information (e.g., full name, address, phone number, etc.) about you or anyone else. If you want to sign up for the mailing list, please use the form in the top right corner (only if you're 13 or older).
2. Please keep your comments short. 100-150 words would be great, which makes reading them faster and easier for everyone. If you have something longer to say – start your own blog (for example, go to Blogger.com to learn more about starting your

Hey Ro..saw your friend Georgette on Fox. Do you ever talk politics with her? She is a heavy-duty Republican.

yes
and i love her triple love her

amy writes:

How can you compair a father to a submarine?Do you just not get it or do you just shove that topic aside like it it doesn t matter?You always say "It is what it is."Well it is more than that.True?

tech questions?

VIDEO TROUBLESHOOTING

Having trouble viewing the videos? Try these steps:

Make sure you have the latest version of Flash installed.

Visit <http://www.adobe.com/go/getflash> to upgrade to the latest version of flash.

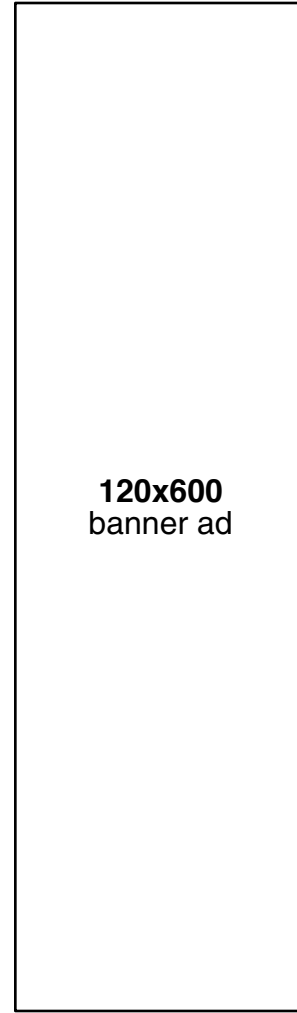

What type of connection are you on?

If you are on a dialup or a slower DSL connection, you may experience a delay for videos to start after you hit play, or stopping and starting of the videos while you are watching. Try pausing the video for a few minutes to allow the video to download, then hit play.

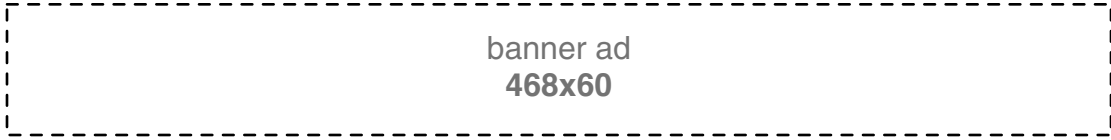

What web browser are you using?

We support Safari and Firefox on the Mac, and Internet Explorer 6 and 7, and Firefox on the PC.

Is the video stopping and starting a lot?
